AROUND SCHOOL

SENIOR BOYS' AND GIRLS' CHORUSES met twice a week with Mrs. Rhodes. Much of the time was spent in singing songs of their own choice. John Amaral sang "Water Boy" and Norman Deming sang "A Perfect Day", at the musical program for the elementary schools. A group chosen from the chorus took part in the Vox Pop Program. A sa large number of the members were H9's, the last few weeks of the semester were spent in learning the songs for graduation.

OUR LIBRARY STAFF, under Mrs. Williams' direction, were very busy this term. The staff picture was taken in the reference corner. There were sixteen assistants. One was absent when the picture was taken, while three were out of range. The three boys in front, Arthur Poenisch, Howard Thor, and Robert Pearson, (out of range) did all the numbering. Virginia Strom, seated at the desk, had charge of the filing. There were 1630 books to keep in order. We all enjoyed our work.

— The Staff.

OUR JUNIOR HI Y derives its name because its welfare and activities are dependent upon the Y. M. C. A. Its purpose, ideals, and activities are such as to promote the moral and physical standards of Burbank youth. The game room, volleyball court, swimming pool, and similar facilities were enjoyed and appreciated to the utmost. The Thursday meetings, attended by thirty boys, were directed by Mr. John Frick.

—Eugene Taylor.

THE BOYS' COUNCIL differed very little from the councils of previous years. Meetings were well attended and many helpful and welcome ideas were received. The boys, under Mr. Frick's leadership, have had many educational suggestions. —Fred Amondsen.

BALLET CLASSES which were taught by Mr. Roberts, became an interest for girls this semester. The fundamentals of the ballet, exercises to train the body to move with grace and rhythm, made up the studies. No advanced routines were possible because few girls were experienced in this technique.

THE GIRLS' COUNCIL, sponsored by Miss McCall, was responsible for many ice skating, roller skating, and swimming parties. Through an afternoon dance, enough money was raised to provide refreshments for the association's semester party.

THE BAND AND ORCHESTRA made splendid progress under Mr. Schott. An excellent dance orchestra was developed, and this group played for several dances and was background for the big Vox Pop Program. The band escorted the Franklin School May Day Parade. The ambitions of both groups have been fired by the idea of representing our school at the 1939 exposition. —Eugene Cline

JUNIOR CHORUSES were directed by Miss Hoffmire. These enthusiastic groups learned many lovely songs and did splendid work.

THE INDOOR TRAFFIC system was supervised by Mrs. MacGregor. Student officers directed pupils passing through the halls and yards. The chief was Euler Finley; the captain was Fred Vogt, and the lieutenants were Ellen Erickson, Constance Nance, Enice Cavellini, Jennie Gaipa, Nevon Stuckey, Lenore Grohs, and Elden Atchison. The secretary was Evelyn Meska. All officers were sworn in by Police Officer Simpson. At the end of their term of service, they received certificates of honorable discharge. —Ellen Erickson, Evelyn Meska.
